VOKABELN

Ohne Wörter kann man keine Sprache sprechen. Deswegen ist das Lernen der Vokabeln mit Abstand der wichtigste Aspekt beim Lernen jeder Sprache.

Zusätzlich zu den schriftlichen Aufgaben lernt Ihr täglich 10-15 Minuten die Vokabeln aus Eurem Schulbuch.

Finde für Dich selbst eine Methode, mit der Du gut zurecht kommst (Karteikarten, Schreiben, Abfragen lassen,...). Was aber wichtig ist: Du musst wissen, wie die Wörter geschrieben werden. Das ist vielleicht momentan noch schwer, aber wenn Du ein Gefühl für die Sprache bekommst, wird es immer leichter.

The seventh Harry Potter book is the last. Joanne Rowling then wants to 20 write new stories without Harry and his friends. Joanne Rowling's books are also films. You can visit many of the places that you see in the films and some are free, for example platform (Gleis) 9<sup>3/4</sup> at King's Cross Station in London.

Howard Walker

Howard Walker was a farmer, a teacher and a reporter before he became a writer of children's books at the age of 60. Now, thirteen years later, he has written more than 80 books. Every day, he goes into his office and writes. In the evening, he gives the work to his wife to read. 'She tells me when she doesn't like something', says Howard. 'My ten grandchildren don't live near here but they also read my stories and say if they are good or bad.' And so Howard has learned what young children want to read.

Howard writes about the life in his village and on the farms near it. His fifth book is his favourite: My Friend Spot is about a farmer and the dog that helps him. 'I have always liked animals,' says Howard, 'and dogs are so clever, they learn very quickly.'

Last year, the book was made into a film with real animals and actors. The film-makers used the latest computer technology to make people think that the animals are speaking. Howard was very pleased with the film. 'Sometimes film-makers change books, but they didn't change mine and I love the film.'
